MR. TEAGLE'S BIG NEWS
WARNINGS AGAINST REDS
GLOOM IN RELIGION
DOYLE CAME BACK

By Arthur Brisbane
(Copyright 1930 By King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

THE LABORATORIES OF GREAT industrial corporations are more valuable than all our gold and silver supply. Walter Teagle, president of the Standard Oil Co. of New Jersey, announces a new process for making gasoline that will yield two barrels of gasoline where only one could be extracted before.

This news is vitally important to the world's oil supply as it will provide the quantity of gasoline needed without criminal waste of the oil.

STANDARD OIL WILL not keep to itself the new process which it owns jointly with the I. G. Farbenindustrie of Germany.

Seventeen oil companies, including five Standard Oil companies, representing 80 per cent of all the gasoline production in the United States will share the process.

ELIHU ROOT, very able man, advocates a special national police to keep track of "reds." Communists, that by secret means, according to Mr. Root, "aim at the destruction of our government."

The government should keep itself informed concerning the activities of all secret societies, no matter what their character. The less secrecy in a republic, the better.

AND, WHILE A SPECIAL national police force might discourage activities of "reds," prosperity would be destroyed then still more.

What quinism is to malaria, prosperity is to communism. When men have something to divide, they lose their interest in dividing.

AN ASSOCIATED PRESS dispatch from Vatican City, reporting the pope's conversation with Monsignor Ryan of the Catholic University of America at Washington, D. C., says the pope warned Bolshevism. The pope is quoted as saying "the people of the United States do not realize how far Bolshevism has spread."

THE pope added that on a visit to Britain before his selection as pontiff he had been startled to find how great a hold Bolshevism had there and warned America "to beware lest anything similar happen to your own country."

SOME PREACHERS IN New York take a gloomy view of religion.

The Rev. H. Robert Smith told his congregation in Trinity Episcopal church, at the corner of Wall Street, that religious faith is dying. He was in the right place to learn about that.

The Rev. Dr. Henry Sloan Coffin, head of Union Theological seminary, says our Christian faith is "not so much disbelieved as ignored."

The Right Rev. Charles Edward Woodcock, bishop of the Protestant Episcopal diocese of Kentucky, says the church is devitalized, and the Rev. R. P. Barnes, quoting Whitehead, says the church has become "the harmless adornment of a comfortable life, and fears to discuss unpopular subjects."

The British Rev. William C. Poole, all the way from Christ church, London, says Americans are in grave danger of becoming "morally color-blind."

Charges To Come In Murphy Death

OWNERSHIP OF GUN ADMITTED BY PRISONER

Sheriff Refuses To Tell Name Of Person Who Will Be Accused

OFFICIALS NEARING INVESTIGATION END

Dragich Insists Death Of Man Was Suicide; Girl Still In Prison

Formal charges will be filed in the fatal shooting of Frank Murphy, 29, of Salem, by Prosecuting Attorney John E. Banknecht in a Lisbon court this afternoon. Sheriff William J. Barlow announced shortly before noon today.

The sheriff refused to name persons against whom the charges will be preferred but stated that investigations in the case are gradually nearing completion and that preliminary hearings for the accused will be brought to court within the next 24 hours.

Dragich In City Jail
Peter Dragich, 29, of Salem, at whose home Murphy was shot, is still being held in city jail here on an open charge. He will be taken to the county seat this afternoon for further questioning by authorities there.

Miss Mary Timney, also of this city, is being held in county jail on a similar charge.

Murphy died at Central Clinic hospital from a bullet wound in his neck about 10:40 p. m. Saturday. He was shot in apartments maintained at 187 West State street by Dragich, about 5:15. The approximate time of the shooting was fixed definitely today with statements of neighbors who watched Dragich take the wounded man to the hospital.

Denies Shooting Man
Dragich returned to his apartments where he was arrested by a squad of Salem police, headed by Police Chief T. W. Thompson. He denied any connection with the shooting and stated that Murphy's wound was self-inflicted. He repeated his statements when questioned by Sheriff Barlow and Coroner Ernest R. Sturgis, Sunday.

Sturgis conducted an inquest Sunday afternoon and evening and issued a verdict of homicide yesterday. Prosecuting Attorney Banknecht was in Salem conducting a short investigation Monday night.

Dragich has admitted ownership of the revolver which was found in his automobile and which police said fired the fatal shot. He stated that he had owned the gun since he was 18 years of age. Two shots had been fired from it but only one had been fired recently. It was of 32 caliber.

Sheriff Barlow reported this morning that the party which was held at Dragich's home was attended by two other Salem residents in addition to Dragich, Murphy and Miss Timney. The former left the apartments about 5 p. m. shortly before the shooting occurred.

Wife Resents Back To Nature Attitude

PITTSBURGH, July 15.—If there is one thing Miss Bishop likes, it's this back to nature stuff. But his enthusiasm is not shared by the Mrs. That's why she was in divorce court yesterday.

"Why he made me take long trips in the woods with him and sleep out under the stars and eat from the trees" she said.

Judge George V. Moore granted her a decree.

PRESIDENT WILL NOT ACT; BOARD FACES PROBLEM

Hoover Leaves Wheat To Farm Group; Want Bread Price Cut

WASHINGTON, July 15.—President Hoover is leaving the situation created by the slump in wheat prices to the federal farm board.

He intends to take no action, it is announced at the White House, beyond conferring with Chairman Legge and other members of the board as occasion demands.

The President was represented as feeling the board was created by congress and its members confirmed the purpose of dealing with agricultural and that action should be left to them.

The board was hopeful today that the demand of Samuel R. McKelvie, member representing wheat, for lower bread prices would have a beneficial effect upon the wheat market.

A cut in the retail price of bread, McKelvie asserted, would serve to stimulate consumption, with the latter factor reflected in an increase price for wheat.

Today was the first anniversary of the board's initial meeting. Out of its authorized $500,000,000 revolving fund, it invested during the year $195,000,000 in loans to co-operatives, of which $40,000,000 has been repaid.

The $195,000,000 sum included the board's advances to the grain stabilization corporation, with which the corporation made large purchases of wheat in both the spot and futures markets.

Some 2,000,000 bushels of wheat were put back into the market last week, with the announcement an identical quantity of the 1930 crop was being purchased to offset the release of this grain.

SOVIET METHODS BECOME SUBJECT 10-DAY HEARING

Representative Fish Has Reins In Survey Of Communism

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, July 15.—Determined to learn what if any influence Russian Soviets are bringing to bear on American governmental ideals, Representative Hamilton Fish, Jr., Republican New York today gathered his special house Communist investigation committee here for 10 days of hearing.

Activities of Communists in the New York city public schools, among trade unions and alien groups are to be inquired into, with Dr. William J. O'Shea, superintendent of schools, Charles G. Wood, commissioner of labor in New York City, Matthew Woll, vice president of the American Federation of Labor, and former Police Commissioner Grover Whalen, among witnesses called.

In addition, the committee plans to hear Michael Lyons, of the New York police department, and summon officials of the Amtorg Trading company, official commercial representative of the Soviet Union.

Representative Fish, chairman of the inquisitorial group of five, said he planned to push the inquiry vigorously here and in other important American cities where Communists have been reported active in circulating propaganda. After the session here, he said, the group would decide on dates for hearings in Detroit, Buffalo, Philadelphia, Chicago, and probably some city in Wisconsin.

Rescuers Find Task Of Bringing Boy To Hospital Hard

(By The Associated Press)

BENNINGTON, VT., July 15.—Frank Goldsborough, 19-year-old aviator and junior transcontinental record holder, was found alive in the wreckage of his airplane in the fastness of a wild mountainside near here today, but surgeons fear he may have made his last flight. Examination at Putnam Memorial hospital showed a badly fractured skull and the flier's condition was said to be extremely critical.

Goldsborough crashed in the wilderness on the side of Woodford mountain, half way between here and Dunville Notch, about noon yesterday, while flying from Buffalo, N. Y., to Keene, New Hampshire, with Donald Mockler, a lecturer. Mockler, thrown clear of the wreckage, was unable to extricate Goldsborough and wandered for about five hours before he reached a farm house and summoned help.

Searching parties combed the mountainside throughout the night and found the youth unconscious, about 6:30 o'clock this morning, approximately 18 hours after he had fallen.

Removing Youth Difficult
Having found the injured aviator, the task of the searching party was not ended, however, for there remained the task of carrying him for more than two miles through swampland, tangled underbrush and boulder strewn trails to a point where an ambulance awaited his arrival.

Two members of the party, for this purpose, provided an improvised stretcher by tying the coats together. Mearns, exerting every effort not to cause too great distress to the injured youth.

The ambulance, pushing forward over difficult roads used 40 minutes in covering the four mile stretch to the hospital here. There, awaiting the arrival of the youth was his stepmother, Mrs. Bryce Goldsborough, who arrived here early this morning.

Dr. John Trotter, the first surgeon who examined Goldsborough, reported a fractured skull, but said that this with his long period of exposure and lack of attendance was sufficient to make his condition most critical.

POLICE OFFICER TELLS JURY OF WOMAN'S DEATH

Alleged Confession Made After Arrest Explains Plans Of Murder

JEFFERSON, July 15.—A story of how Mrs. Maude Lowther, 22, dispassionately shot to death Mrs. Clara Smith, 28, of Ashtabula, her rival for the affections of Mrs. Smith's husband, was related on the witness stand here today in the first degree murder trial of Tilby Smith, 26, the husband.

Police Lieutenant Albert Snow, the witness, related the story as it allegedly was told to him by Mrs. Lowther shortly after she was arrested.

Snow said Mrs. Lowther confessed to the crime after Smith had accused her of it. "You double-crossing rat," she exclaimed at Smith. "They never would have found out if you hadn't squealed."

Mrs. Lowther told, Snow said, of knowing Smith about 10 days during which time they believed they had fallen in love. Smith complained that he was not getting along well with his wife and discussed using a poison to kill her.

Smith and Mrs. Lowther considered putting the poison into a bottle of pop, but decided the process of killing that way would be too slow.

On the night of May 21, Smith gave Mrs. Lowther a revolver according to Snow's testimony. Two nights later he told her of his plans for the killing and took her to a road paralleling the lonely lane where Mrs. Smith later was found dead.

Blackmail Scheme Falls Through When Typewriter Gives Clue To Letters

BELLEFONTAINE, July 15.—Rev. Frank E. Reddick, 42, of the Huntsville Methodist Episcopal church, was scheduled to be arraigned today on a blackmail charge in connection with letters written to Frank Howard, also of Huntsville and a former member of his congregation.

Reddick, Prosecutor George Middleton said, confessed last night that he had written several letters, some of them mailed from Dayton, demanding $5,000 from Howard under threat of death. Howard turned the letters over to authorities and a Dayton detective agency learned that the pastor owned a typewriter similar to the one used by the letter-writer.

Reddick was unable to give any reason for the alleged scheme, Prosecutor Middleton said.

Estimate Over $50,000 Above That Of Last Year's Allotment

A total of $216,448.30 will be requested from the county general taxation fund to provide operation and maintenance of various municipal departments in Salem during the year 1931. City Auditor Helen R. Woerther announced today.

Estimates of financial needs for the coming year were filed with Miss Woerther by heads of the departments this morning preparatory to the formulation of the budget which will be acted upon by members of city council at their meeting tonight.

The budget provides for an increase in financial needs of the departments amounting to more than $50,000. A total of $165,789.97 was asked of the county in 1929. Increases in requests resulted in practically every municipal department, Miss Woerther stated.

Ask for More Protection
Included in the estimates filed by the officials are proposals for funds to provide salaries for additional firemen and policemen as recommended by Safety Director John R. Kerr while Clyde R. Reich, service director submitted a request for $2,500 to provide funds for the erection of street signs throughout the city.

The general fund which includes salaries of officials, council members and board of health members, totals $125,659 while $90,000.30 is proposed for the payment of bonds and interest still outstanding.

The waterworks requirements, filed by Reich, are estimated at $67,240 with costs of the operation and maintenance of the sewage treatment plant estimated at $15,692. Street lighting will involve expenditure of $17,200, Reich estimated.

To Use Auto Tax
The city will obtain approximately $19,000 as its share from state automobile and gasoline taxation proceeds, Miss Woerther stated, to assist in repairs on street. This fund is requested for the service department.

The Centennial park commission asked for $2,500, the same amount requested in 1929 for this year's expenditures. Safety director Kerr included in his estimates a request that the police and firemen's pension boards be allowed approximately $5,857.78 each.

For special assessments the sum of $41,793.16 is requested. Needs of the police department are filed to amount to $17,152, more than $4,500 more than last year, while Kerr asks $21,978 for the fire department.

BEFORE AND AFTER

Asa Keyes, who less than six months ago was district attorney in Los Angeles county, California, is now a numbered man in San Quentin prison. Mr. Keyes was accused often of being relentless in his prosecution of criminals when he was district attorney, but a few months of imprisonment seem to have given him some new ideas. He must still serve at least nine months of his one-to-14 year sentence imposed for complicity in a bribery conspiracy.

"Imprisonment has a saturation point," Mr. Keyes is quoted as saying. "From my observations during the months I have been here, I am convinced that after a certain period no more lessons can be learned and inmates deteriorate in mind, body and spirit. Eighty-five per cent of men in San Quentin are under sentences which are too severe. They are being harmed instead of helped. Six months is long enough for these men to learn their lessons and pay their debts to society. After that they go to pieces rapidly."

"Statistics show that 80 per cent of paroled men become good citizens again. I believe this percentage could be materially increased by shorter sentences."

The former district attorney believes that four out of every ten men in state prisons should be released; that three out of the ten should be imprisoned for sentences ranging up to two years, and that the remaining three should be kept in prison for life. There should be no 10-to-25-year sentences, in his opinion—no sentences which will break down men's bodies and destroy their minds.

These statements coming from Mr. Keyes undoubtedly would carry more weight had they been made say two years ago, when he was regarded as an honorable and efficient servant of the public. But, even made at this time they must be considered seriously because a man who not so long ago was engaged busily in filling San Quentin with long-term prisoners, speaks with a certain authority provided by the very change of thought which he has experienced. His beliefs are in agreement, furthermore, with those of Warden Elmer Lawes of Sing Sing prison.

There is the suggestion in any statement of the nature that prosecutors and judges would do well to spend a term in prison to ripen their judgment before taking up their tasks in the courtroom. It is not very feasible, but it might produce some good results.

ON WHEELS

The department of commerce issued figures recently showing that the world rate of motor vehicle ownership was reduced from one vehicle for every 61 persons in 1929 to one for every 55 persons in the present year. The department's tabulation places the worldwide registration of passenger automobiles, motor trucks and motor buses at 35,177,395 on Jan. 1, 1930. This figure represented an increase of 2,692,829 vehicles or nine per cent over the registration of a year before.

If the United States were to be left out of consideration the ratio of automobile ownership would be changed to one vehicle for every 216 persons, since 26,653,450 units of the world's automobile registration are in this country, where the proportion is one car to every 4.5 persons. Canada and New Zealand stand next to the United States, each with an ownership ratio of one car to every eight persons. Austria is third with one for every ten persons and is followed by Monaco, where the registration shows one for every sixteen.

In addition to the importance which attends upon the ownership of more than 75 per cent of the world's automobiles, the commerce department's tabulation shows that 88.4 per cent of all motor vehicles registered in the world are of American origin. It is a figure of tremendous significance, indicating as it does the development of American export trade in automobiles, a development which has caused the expected percentage of domestic car output to increase from seven to eleven per cent between 1921 and 1929, and the similar percentage of gain from eleven to forty three per cent during the same period.

Americans are used to being bombarded with statistics showing their industrial supremacy, but even so it is never amiss to take note of them. The statistician is the guardian of the nation's health—the diagnostician of its troubles.

Over in Berlin they have a radio loud speaker that broadcasts 25 miles in every direction. That will at least keep residents living over and around radio salesrooms from thinking they have a special burden to bear.

They are trying to devise an ideal street car. Well, now, about the first thing to do is to make a strap a fellow can hang on without depending on the other fellow's feet to hold him up.

Introducing Jose Santa, six feet and eight inches tall, who will dispute the fistic claims of Primo Carnera—or hopes to. Ho, hum. The bigger they are the harder they foul.

What Others Say

THE BASIS OF CITIZENSHIP.—The citizenship applications of Dr. MacIntosh of Yale and Miss Bland, Canadian nurse, form borderline cases, exceedingly puzzling in their facts. Both are admirable human beings and their admission would be welcome news—provided only that the decision in their cases did not set up a precedent which would be dangerous in general application.

Of the two, it seems to us that Miss Bland stands on surer ground; for she clearly bases her refusal to bear arms on religious scruples, and both our laws and the principles of our government respect such convictions. Any other rule would infringe the basic right of religious liberty. The only doubt in her case relates to the source of her scruples. Were they a matter of individual faith or were they part of a group faith which she held as a member of a cult? For obvious reasons of practical convenience our laws have heretofore limited the exemption to religious scruples of the second category. The point is not clearly answered by Miss Bland's statements. Yet, all things considered, we think the circuit court correctly admitted the facts of her case to their involving membership in an established religious faith. In any event, the distinction is of importance chiefly in war time, when a draft board must have a rough-and-ready test to apply and the sincerity of such scruples is much harder to judge.

We are not able to follow the circuit court's view of Dr. MacIntosh's application. As we read his statement, he asserted no scruple based on religious faith, but merely sought to assert his right as an individual to refuse to uphold his nation if he thought it did not deserve to be upheld. No nation in its senses would apply the universal draft to a minor war. But in a great contest, when the life of a nation was at stake, it must obviously have the right to claim the support of its fighting men or perish. Dr. MacIntosh's statement clearly denies this right, and we do not see how an exemption can be made in his case without weakening the whole basis of our government.

Judge Manton refers to the Kellogg pact to bolster up his argument. But we have yet to learn that this treaty is a dogma of revealed religion; and recalling the ecclesiastical interpretations which have been placed upon that document, nobody anywhere could ever be drafted in fight if escape could be achieved by vouchsafing an individual view of those extremely vague phrases.

A grave issue is involved in Dr. MacIntosh's application. We hope the decision can be carried to the supreme court for a definite statement of the law such as was given in the Schweitzer case. If he can be admitted without weakening the general rule, well and good. We do not think that the circuit court decision accomplishes the result.

The Stars Say

For Wednesday, July 15, a particularly lively and progressive day may be looked for, according to the lunar as well as mutual aspects. Many new interests and connections, personal and also business, will arise with the prospect of favors, protection, increase and promotion for those in employment. It is a time for pushing for those in places of position and power, in order to advance even self. New projects are in order and, generally, a note of romance is dominant. Those whose birthday it is are on the threshold of a year of new ventures and enterprises with the prospect of advancement, progress and success, especially through the offices and preferment of those in places of authority and power. The personal affairs should, likewise, thrive and, perhaps, be complex, intense and romantic.

Those born on this day may be brilliant and versatile as well as personally endowed with those qualities and graces making for success, honors and position in life.

HEALTH

By Dr. Royal S. Copeland

Certain Work Causes Neuritis. On my desk is a letter from Oakland, Calif., asking for an article on "Occupational neuritis."

There are many of the so-called occupational diseases. We know burners, stokers and bakers suffer from the effects of intense heat, and packers in storage plants suffer from the cold. Lead and mercury poisoning are found among painters and other workers. Drivers suffer from bad air. The immediate disturbances disappear when the person leaves his work at the end of the day.

The term "occupational neuritis" includes a large number of disturbances of nerves and muscles due to long-continued overwork. They are due to strain or to repeated shocks to nerves or muscles because of the demands in certain occupations.

As a rule these are occupations requiring intelligence and concentration. But occasionally persons doing unskilled labor are troubled with pains in overworked parts.

The most common of the occupational disorders are ailments known as "writers' cramp," "typists' cramp," and "musicians' cramp."

particularly pianists, violinists and drummers, develop neuritis. Others who suffer are carpenters, machinists, tailors and masons. In fact, anyone who holds the same position for a long period or who goes through the same motions repeatedly may have trouble.

Massage Helps

This condition shows itself in pains and cramps in the muscles during exercise or while holding the position which has caused the trouble. Later these pains disappear during rest. As a rule, there is increased tenderness along the course of the nerve in the involved part.

Neuritis due to occupation may be avoided by changing the position of the body frequently. These changes transfer the muscular pressure from one group of muscles to another. The symptoms are always relieved by brief periods of rest. Indeed, when trouble has developed rest is the first thing to be thought of as a means of benefiting the victim.

If there is much pain massage, heat and electricity are all helpful. Sometimes it is necessary to have a complete change of occupation.

When you leave your work change to fresh clothes and take a short walk. Do not eat if you are tired or do not feel well. Rest for half an hour, wash the face and hands thoroughly and take a cup of soup. This should refresh you and drive away the result of the day's work. Later you will enjoy the evening meal.

According to a Russian scientist the human eye moves involuntarily about 100 times a minute.

Highlights Of Ohio History

By J. H. GALBRAITH

The first editor to launch a newspaper upon the site of Ohio's capital was James B. Gardiner, who had a stormy career in both journalism and politics. He came to Frankfort—all there was then of what is now Columbus—from Marietta, in 1810, and established the "Freeman's Chronicle." It was a losing venture and lasted only two years. Though a printer by trade, Gardiner announced that he was done with the newspaper business for good.

Later he moved to Xenia, and in 1825 was a candidate for representative in the legislature. The previous legislature had increased the pay of legislators from $2 per diem to $3, and of course there was a salary grab protest. In his campaign for election, Gardiner declared that he would work to have the salary increase law repealed but that failing, he would draw the legal pay and turn one dollar of each day's pay into the treasury of Greene county. It was popular talk and he was elected, but the legislature denied him his seat and disqualified him from holding office for two years, claiming that he had in effect bribed the voters, but the disqualification was stricken out a few days later and Gardiner managed to have a special election called, ran again and was elected—the legislature not having given the seat to the contestant, John Van Eaton; but again Gardiner established the "People's Press" newspaper at Xenia to fight his cause.

Then Gardiner became a candidate for the next Senate, and being elected, was permitted to sit through the session, Robert Lucas and Reuben Wood, both later to be governors of the state, sat with Gardiner in that senate. The membership of the house that had excluded him was mediocre, the name of Thomas L. Hamer, later a noted member of congress, in which capacity he appointed Grant to West Point, and a general in the Mexican War, where he lost his life, being the only one in the list that suggests a man who rose to higher distinction. The senatorial district which Gardiner represented in the senate was composed of Greene and Clinton counties. He served in the 23rd and 26th legislative sessions.

Five Gold Miners Suffocate In Smoke

OHIO THIRD IN CLAY INDUSTRY

FOREST FIRES OCCUR AFTER SHACK BURNS

5 Trapped Underground Fail To Escape From Lethal Fumes

RESCUERS RUSHED IN VAIN ATTEMPT

Scene Of Disaster Far Up In Mountain Wilderness

(By The Associated Press) SACRAMENTO, CAL., July 15.—Five miners died of suffocation from smoke which swirled through the Glenn Gold mine as the surface buildings and surrounding forest were destroyed by fire yesterday.

The victims were James Campbell, Placerville; E. C. Shepherd, Roseville; G. B. Henry, Sacramento; Joseph Shearer, Grass Valley; and Tom Captain, address unknown.

The mine ordinarily employs seven miners, two not being on duty.

The Cook house of the mine, 85 miles east of here, caught fire, the flames spreading to other buildings and destroying the compressor which supplied air to the shaft.

Smoke rushed into the mine drifts which run into the ground level with the surface.

Rescuers: Enter Mine

The five men were working on the higher of two levels when the fire started. Rescuers at once attempted to enter the shafts but before they could do so the smoke rushed from the lower level, indicating the entire underground workings had been filled with the fumes.

State Senator J. M. Inman of Sacramento, part owner of the mine, arrived on the scene and took charge of the work, aided by Forest Supervisor R. L. Bigelow of Nevada City. A mine rescue team hurried to the scene from Grass Valley.

The mine, however, is located in an almost inaccessible spot in the Sierra mountain range. When rescuers entered the smoke filled drifts they found the five bodies of the lower level of a 2,000 foot tunnel.

GERMAN LEADER BACKS SOLDIERS

Will Not Participate In Festivities Until Ban Is Lifted

BERLIN, July 15.—Venerable President Von Hindenburg threw something akin to a political bombshell today when he notified the Prussian Premier, Dr. Otto Braun, that he must decline to participate in the festivities planned at Coblenz, Treves, Aix-La-Chapelle, and Wiesbaden in celebration of the liberation of German soil from foreign troops.

The president's refusal was based upon the fact that the Prussian government has not yet lifted the ban on the "Stahlhelm," an organization of former service men who participated in the war. President Von Hindenburg is an honorary member of this organization.

The president explained that his consent to make a five day trip through the liberated Rhineland beginning next Friday was given on the assumption that the ban on the "Stahlhelm" would be lifted by that time, so that they might join in the festivities.

"The Prussian government," he said, "has, however, made the lifting of the ban subject to conditions from which I am compelled to conclude that these old front-line fighters will not be permitted to meet me in closed formations although this form of demonstration has been permitted to all other organizations. I am unable to agree to this prejudicial treatment of the 'Stahlhelm'."

road, and told her to wait until he arrived with his wife. She waited nearly two hours.

Then Smith drove up with his small motor truck. His wife was sitting beside him with her six months old baby in her arms. Their other child was also on the seat.

She testified Mrs. Leather said she jumped out in the road and ordered Smith to halt. "Get behind the truck," she shouted at him. He complied. Then she stepped on the running board, pointing the gun point-blank at Mrs. Smith's head and fired the fatal shot.

Smith then came back to the front of the truck and told Mrs. Leather to "get out of here." She recrossed the fields to the other road and went home, where she later was arrested.

Sentenced To Prison

TEACHERS NEAR REAL POVERTY

Chicago Has No Money To Use In Giving Back Pay To Those Employed In Schools

CHICAGO, July 15.—The financial situation among Chicago's 13,000 public school teachers is once more acute.

The dire days of last winter have been paralleled. It is vacation time and pay checks are three weeks overdue.

The recent special relief session of the legislature authorized the school board to issue $25,000,000 in bonds for emergency purposes but bond members, after a fruitless session yesterday, said bankers would not take the bonds without a court ruling in lieu of a referendum.

To date, the back pay amounts to $6,500,000. The board has for sale $13,000,000 in tax warrants, but they are unable to market these until the 1928 and 1929 warrants are redeemed.

Many school teachers are facing actual poverty, one, with $275 in back pay due her, told Lewis E. Myers, school board member, that she had only 75 cents. That was yesterday.

BANDITS SHOOT GAS ATTENDANT

Marion Scene Of Murder; Police Institute Search For Robbers

MARION, July 15.—Police of a dozen Ohio cities are on the lookout for bandits who shot and killed Raymond Steele, 30, filling station attendant here early this morning. Steele was found face down, between the pumps and the station about 3 a. m. The cash register had been looted of $52.

State Sen. Steele had been shot in the back. His employer said there were evidences of a scuffle inside the station where Steele had evidently been repairing a tire. Money on Steele's body had not been disturbed. Two girls in an automobile discovered Steele lying in front of the station. They notified police immediately.

Steele died while enroute to the hospital in an ambulance. He did not regain consciousness. Police think that the shooting occurred a short time before he was found in front of the station. One bullet hole was in his body.

Steele was unmarried and lived at Caledonia, 70 miles east of here. The filling station where the shooting occurred is located in the city's uptown business district.

STAGE, SCREEN CELEBRITY DIES

Rudolph Schildkraut Succumbs To Heart Attack After Being Stricken At Work

HOLLYWOOD, CAL., July 15.—Rudolph Schildkraut, veteran of the stage and screen, died today at the home of his son Joseph Schildkraut, film star. He had suffered a heart attack yesterday while working at a motion picture studio.

Schildkraut's death was unexpected. He appeared to be gaining strength last night and received several friends who entertained him by singing.

The actor suffered a slight attack last November but recovered and resumed active screen work. He was born in Constantinople and early in life started on a stage career which earned fame in Continental Europe.

In his later years he scored numerous successes in the films, his performance in the King of Kings being an outstanding one. The advent of the "talkies" opened a field in which he was much at home and he became an active performer.

SENATE LEADERS BELIEVE BALLOT NEAR ON TREATY

Agreement With Norris On Secret Arrangements Has Its Effect

RETAINING QUORUM STILL DIFFICULT

Fears Of Filibuster Are Aired; Would Attempt To Prevent Act

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, July 15.—Advocates of the London naval treaty were ready to rest their case before the senate today with a speech by Senator Reed, Republican, Pennsylvania, one of the delegates to the treaty, and then leave the burden of carrying on the debate to a small but determined band of opponents.

Prospects of reaching an early vote on ratification of the pact were increased by an informal agreement on the Norris reservation reached among friends of the treaty.

The reservation would stipulate that this government shall not be bound by any secret understanding or agreements which are not a part of the treaty. It was submitted after President Hoover declared to give the senate custody of all papers relating to the London conference.

INSURANCE MEN HELD IN FRAUD

Executive Sees "Dead Man" On Street Then Starts An Inquiry; 12 Held

NEW YORK, July 15.—An insurance executive who observed a supposedly dead man hurrying on his way to work started an investigation that has disclosed a million dollar conspiracy.

Recalled that he recently saw John McCoy's death certificate. The executive inquired about it. It was all news to McCoy.

The insurance man told District Attorney Fack, of Richmond county who soon discovered 39 other persons on whose supposed deaths the Metropolitan Insurance company had paid death benefits ranging from $482 to $9,500. Two employees of the company were arrested, charged with falsifying records.

None of the persons whose death claims had been paid were aware of it.

The district attorney estimated that insurance companies had been defrauded of millions of dollars on false death claims throughout the city.

what to think. Their crops had been almost ruined by too much rain. On Sunday, all the inhabitants gathered in the public square, to pray that no more rain might come. While they were praying, a cloud-burst flooded the village, killed livestock, destroyed what was left of crops, and many homes. The villagers fled to the mountains, the pillars believing that the person praying must have omitted the word "not."

SIR ARTHUR CONAN DOYLE kept his word and unbelievers are silenced. Eight thousand gathered in the great Albert hall in London, an empty chair stood between the widow, Lady Doyle, and her eldest son, Dennis. Sir Conan Doyle, "wearing evening dress," came in and sat down in the chair. Mrs. Estelle Roberts, professional, hired medium, was the only one that saw him. She got his message and whispered it to Lady Doyle, who said it was authentic, nobody could have made it up.

SEVERAL OTHER SPIRITS appeared, doubtless taking advantage of such a fine gathering. The amazing thing is that when a spirit takes all the trouble to come back in a dress suit that he says so little. Doyle said: "I am happy," and sent word to his widow that some member of the family had visited his grave that morning. It was true.

NURSE KILLED BY HER CHARGE

14-Year-Old Boy Confesses To Stabbing 23-Year-Old Woman To Death

GREEN POND, N. J., July 15.—Robert Woolsey, 14-years-old, son of a Jersey city paint dealer, was in custody today charged with the slaying of his nurse, Miss Anna Miller, 23-year-old, of Scranton, Pa. Miller's body with two stab wounds in the abdomen and five in the back was found yesterday in a ravine at the foot of Lookout mountain. She disappeared Sunday when she left the summer home of her employers for a walk with the boy.

BURGLARS CAN FIND SECRET HIDING PLACES

You often hear thieves referred to as members of 'the burglar profession.' It is called a profession because men who are engaged in it know their business as well as do men in legitimate professions.

You would have great difficulty in finding a place in your home in which you could hide valuables so that thieves would not find them. There is one place however, where burglars can never find your possessions. That is in our new Safe Deposit vault.

You can rent a box here, at a cost of less than a cent a day.

FRANK PURNELL STEEL WITNESS

Defense Has Inning As Judge Rules Official May Be Quizzed

YOUNGSTOWN, July 15. — A coup d'état, check-mating a surprise, gave the defense an unexpected early inning today in the suit to enjoin merger of the Youngstown company, to the stand as a "hostile" witness ahead of President Eugene G. Grace of Bethlehem.

It developed they intended to have Purnell identify some papers only and then leave the stand until another day.

But when the plaintiffs' attorneys turned the witness over to former Secretary of War Newton D. Baker, chief of defense counsel, the latter began to question him about other matters.

The plaintiffs objected on the ground that court ruled questioning beyond their own examination.

Judge David G. Jenkins held that while the plaintiffs were technically correct, he was willing for Purnell to remain in the stand as a defense witness. Defense attorneys then indicated they may continue to examine Purnell throughout the day.

Cleveland Emerges From Slump To Win Third Straight Game

Jamieson Stars With Running Catch, Timely Single In Last Frame

Roger Peckinpaugh's Cleveland Indians showed signs of emerging still further from the slump which involved them during the past month, annihilating the Boston Red Sox 3-2, in a well played battle at League park Monday. It was the Tribe's third straight win over the Boston club and its seventh in the last nine starts.

Charlie Jamieson, veteran Indian outfielder, saved the game for Wesley Ferrell, youthful right-handed hurler for the Cleveland aggregation, when he made a brilliant running catch in the ninth inning then won the game with a single, scoring Joe Sewell in the last half of the inning.

The Red Sox hit Ferrell for 10 hits while Cleveland was able to garner only eight from offerings of Milton Gaston.

"Konjolo Proved Blessing In My Stubborn Case"

Retired Soldier Says He Cannot Praise New And Different Medicine Too Highly

MR. HENRY FAULKNER

What mightier recommendation can a medicine have than the grateful words of those who, to their everlasting joy, put it to the test. Read the grateful statement of Mr. Henry Faulkner, Company 3, Soldiers Home, Dayton, Ohio who says:

"Konjolo certainly proved a blessing in my stubborn case bringing relief after all else tried for stomach and kidney troubles and nervousness. After every meal came gas and bloating; my back ached and every night I had to get up frequently because of the kidney condition. Konjolo was so strongly recommended that I decided to give this new medicine a trial. Today I feel like a new man, able to eat anything I want. My nerves are quiet and I sleep well. I will always be a friend of Konjolo."

Though Konjolo does go swiftly to the very source of the ills it is designed to combat, a full treatment of from six to eight bottles is strongly recommended.

Konjolo is sold in J. H. Lease Co. 3 Drug Stores and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

THE DAY In Sports

GOLF ATTRACTS THIRONG BASEBALL LESS POPULAR

ONE OF THE STRONGEST baseball teams of Eastern Ohio was the attraction at Dun Eden park for a game with Pete Scullion's Dun Eden aggregation Sunday afternoon. Except for the gathering of American Legion members, their wives and children who were holding a picnic at the park, the affair drew a small gathering of fans.

At the Salem Golf club course the East Palestine Country club course Highland club course near Canton, and the many other golfing grounds in a radius of 20 miles of this city, were many Salem sporting fans who three years ago would have preferred a game of baseball to any other event on Sunday. The number of golfers at the Salem course alone, probably outnumbered the total of Salem residents attending the baseball game.

THE POPULARITY of golf has been commented on before but Sunday, when the Canton General Tires opposed the Dun Eden team, a large crowd was anticipated. It was discovered more than ever that the national game is being surpassed in popularity by golf. Fewer fans than ever before are making trips from Salem to Cleveland or Pittsburgh for a major league contest. Less than 20 persons journeyed to Youngstown for the Homestead Grays-Forestville Merchants game which was halted in the second inning on account of rain.

Five years ago fans would have gone miles to have supported the Dun Eden outfit, rated the strongest to represent Salem since the Mullins team of 1920. This year, when automobiles have made five miles a shorter distance than walking to Reilly field from home would have been not so long ago, they refuse to be attracted by even first class semi-professional teams.

WHILE SALEM GOLF club members are involved in the third flight of the Merchants' cup tournament at the East Palestine Country club, Mitchell "Mitch" Lewis, Palestine pro, is holding an invitational tournament for golfers throughout the country. Invitations have been received by about 100 here.

The Palestine course is located on the state highway to Pittsburgh and was built this year. More than 20 Salem players converted the green of the course yesterday.

The invitational tournament started Sunday and will close Sunday, July 27. Four classes will compete according to ability.

KELLEY'S PARK, near Leetonia, is proving a popular picnic resort for gatherings this summer. Harold Lewis of Salem, who has taken over the park's management, stated today. The concrete bathing pool has been improved in the past week and is attracting many bathers throughout the entire district.

With high temperatures prevailing, record-breaking crowds are seeking cooler spots in all parks and resorts near this city.

GUANTANAMO, CUBA — The age of Camilla Thaurance, Negroess, who died Monday, is reported as 157 years.

Puts Automatic Gas Heat in your coal Furnace Now

Any good coal furnace whether used for warm air heating or for steam, hot water or vapor heating can be converted to an automatic gas heating plant by the Surface Combustion Gas Burner. You and your family can enjoy the cleanliness, the even temperature comfort and the freedom from furnace coddling that gas heat brings, with practically no outlay of cash... as little as $5 down payment will do... and no more until October.

10% Off for July Orders

If you will help us get a pre-season start on installations by placing your order during July you will save 10% on the completely installed price of $185. Your burner will cost only $166.50... and you have 24 months to pay for it. Your savings in doctor bills, wall paper, cleaning bills for draperies, rugs and furniture, cost of removing ashes, and furnace cleaning and repairs probably will offset the complete cost of the equipment during the time you are paying for it. Remember, this gas burner makes an automatic gas heating plant out of your present coal furnace.

Only $1 Monthly in Winter

To make it still easier for our consumers to enjoy the many advantages of gas heat your monthly payments will be reduced to only $1 during the months of December, January and February. There really isn't any obstacle left to prevent anyone from having this cleanest and most healthful form of heat... you have practically no initial investment, no payments until fall, only $1 during cold months and 24 months to take care of the balance.

And as for heating costs, you'll find them very reasonable. No gas is wasted at any time. Enough and only enough is used to keep your home at the temperature you choose.

MOVIES

"JOURNEY'S END"

At The Grand

War in a subdued key—without martial airs, mock heroics and profanity—is the subject of "Journey's End," the all-dialogue screen version of R. C. Sherriff's play showing the life of the Grand theatre.

It is said that an A. E. F. veteran who saw it at the Hollywood preview, exclaimed, "Why I could feel the mud in my finger nails!" Of such realism is "Journey's End" made.

Real, too, are the characters—that splendid fellow, Captain Stanhope, portrayed by Colin Clive, loaned from the London stage production by arrangement with Maurice Browne, Ltd. There is "Uncle" Osborne, laying down his glowing pipe to go out on a raid knowing he will be dead before it is cold—a role entrusted to Ian MacLaren.

Halvah is a lady to admire—heretofore played by the late Mrs. E. J. D. Manners, who plays Ralph Anthony Bushell, portrays Hibbert, afraid of it all. Billy Bevan is the fat lieutenant who finds war blooming awful without pepper.

Charles Gerrard is the long-suffering cook, Mason.

Other roles are played by Warner Klinger, Jack Pitcairn, Thomas Whiteley and Robert Adair.

The play concerns a brief period in the lives of a certain group of officers in a dug-out in a British trench before St. Quentin. It is a record of the arrival at the front of a young officer who is the brother of the girl to whom the company commander had been engaged; of the cowardice of another young man; of the heroic death of the second in command; of a raiding party to bring back needed German prisoners.

COLUMBIANA

A congregational basket picnic will be held Wednesday evening on the lawn of the Lutheran church, under the auspices of the Daughters of the King. Families are requested to bring their own chairs and silverware, and the committee will furnish buns, butter, coffee and cream. Supper will be served at 6:30. The committee in charge is: Mesdames J. P. Chaddock, D. J. Miller, Ray Fisher, Carl Leider, Arthur Leming, P. C. Clark, and Misses Lois Harmon, and Rhoda Myers. The members of the amusement committee are: Misses Ada Bierman, Pearl Mulch and Alta Mulch and the Men's Brotherhood.

The Sunday evening union services were held at the Christian church with Rev. J. C. Strubel as the speaker. In the morning, Rev. Strubel had charge of the Communion service at the Presbyterian church.

FOREST FIRES RAGE IN PARK

Deschutes, Cascade Areas In Oregon Burning; Fighters Gather

BEND, ORE., July 15.—Six hundred fifty men worked desperately on an 18-mile front today to control forest fires which in two days have laid waste about 5,000 acres of timber in the Deschutes and Cascade national forests.

The forests were so shrouded in smoke it was impossible for lookouts to determine the progress of the fire. Last reports from the Three Sisters district, scene of the worst fire, said the flames had moved into virgin yellow pine and had developed into a crown fire, burning the tree tops.

More than 10 miles of trenches were constructed yesterday and Jack F. Campbell, assistant supervisor of the Deschutes National forest, said he hoped the fighters would be able to construct enough trenches to check the fire today.

Twenty-eight smaller fires were burning in Summit country from Williamsburg pass north toward the Three Sisters. Forest officials believed all had been started by lightning.

Rangers said, however, most of these fires were doing little damage.
